Tuition is payable in advance by the month and is past due after the tenth of the month. Monthly fees are the same whether there are three, four, or five class days in the month. Your tuition reserves a space for you in class. Classes are limited in size. No refunds or adjustments for classes missed. Students are required to keep a regular schedule and to make-up classes missed during the month in which they are missed. Dance classes continue through the school year and follow most regularly scheduled school vacations. Tuition paid by the lesson is $12.00 per hour; students who miss too many classes may need to take private lessons in order to keep up with their class. Two week written notice required for withdrawal.

I acknowledge that I have examined the registration materials for classes at the Dance Arts Academy. I am aware of and voluntarily accept all risks that I or my child may be involved with in participation of activities with the Dance Arts Academy, the Dance Arts Center, or the Medford Civic Ballet. I give permission for use of the named student's name, biographic information, photo, video, or other likeness to be used in programs, television, print, online, and other media.
